Activities/Events

- Murder Mystery Dinner 11/14/2018 – Deb Kirsch reported that this activity was cancelled because of the snow storm and all money was refunded.
- New York Bus Trip – 12/5/2018 – Bernadette O'Connor reported that everything went as scheduled, plenty of food and drink. She was disappointed with the bus company because the WiFi was not working on the bus and the bathroom was not in good order. She did complain to Krapf bus company and is waiting to hear back from them.
- RAP Holiday Party – 12/16/2018 – Kathy Flaherty reported that 184 people will be attending.
- New Year's Eve Party – Sloan – Clancy Potter reported that there are 68 reservations so far and only a few openings left. Her committee has everything ready to go.
- New Year's Eve Party – RH – Arlene reported that there are 30 reservations to date.
- Possible future activities that residents may be interested in – Martin Guitar Factory in Nazareth, PA and the National Museum of Clocks and Watches in Columbia, PA.

Information – Arlene reported that Nino Morello will continue to be the Liaison for the SC. She also stated that a tentative 2019 calendar of activities/events will be sent out via RAP flyer in the near future. She thanked the committee for their support throughout the year. Arlene thanked Cheryl Monaco and Enid Lobel for decorating the RH clubhouse and Clancy Potter and the Stitchers group for decorating the Sloan clubhouse. She has received many positive comments from residents.

CAB Liaison – Nino Morello reported that the new manager, Tara Bevilaqua is learning the ropes, and she has had experience managing communities like ours. Setta Jacobs and Ruth Chillemi will be taking over Katy Malone's job of sending out the RAP flyers in 2019.

Acknowledgement of Retirees – Arlene Smith thanked two outgoing committee members for their service to the Social Committee; Deb Kirsch who four years ago started out as being in charge of the Speaker's Series and most recently Special Activities Coordinator and Maria Derbyshire who has been Secretary for the past six years. Each was presented with a beautiful Anthurium plant. Both Deb and Maria thanked everyone.

There being no further business a motion was made by Deb to adjourn and second by Rhonda Galvin. Motion passed. Maria T. Derbyshire, Secretary
