Activity Reports-

- Just 151 residents signed up for the December 4 RAP Holiday Dinner Dance. This figure was down 18 from 2021 and was the lowest number since its inception. Kathy Flaherty said feedback was generally favorable, but some guests did not commit to returning in 2023.
- Over forty people enjoyed themselves at the Regency Hills New Year's Eve Party. Guests commented on the variety and lovely displays.

Upcoming Events-

- Debbie McDowell said that Bravo Bagels and Dunkin Donuts would be served at the January 13 Coffee in the Clubhouse.
- Regency Hills Cocktail Parties will be held on February 11 and April 15.
- The next Sloan Cocktail Reception will take place on March 26.
- Enid Lobel said the RAP Community Passover Seder would be held on April 12. Everyone is invited.
- Ray Buckley said the Phillies Bus Trip is scheduled for May 24. Tickets will go on sale in April and attendees will travel in a Klein Transportation bus.

CAB Liaison-Bill Schalleur stated there was a surplus in the Camco year-end results. He said he was working on cash management for the roof reserve disbursement. He also asked residents to consider joining the board.

Discussion-

- Donna Varvaris explained she believed it was not feasible to hold the Progressive Dinner in October. She stated that she would not chair the committee, and it was not clear who would take over. Some committee members were in Florida and others had resigned. Kathy Flaherty said that the community might expect an annual 125-150 holiday party attendance. At one time, over 200 people came to the party; however, the prices were lower because Toll Brothers subsidized the event.
- Mary said it was not necessary to worry about the best if used by dates on the coffee and tea supplies.
- Jeanie Kunz and Lea Tyler are going to coordinate the In-house Speaker Series.
- Ray Buckley said the 2023 Veteran's Day commemoration would take place at the gazebo, weather permitting.

Since there was no further business, Donna V. made a motion to adjourn. Millie W. seconded, and the motion passed. The meeting adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Debbie McDowell, Secretary
